

WHO IS A REAL SPIRITUAL BEING ?

Today's world is surrounded by various doctrines, beliefs, philosophies and endless sects in the name of Religion. Each one of them comprising of their own particular do's & don'ts and a peculiar 'CODE OF CONDUCT'. And the one's preaching or propagating these doctrine are named as saints, masters, prophets or the Living Guru. They further proclaim themselves to be the intermediates between men & God and every layman thinks that, being their disciple or firm follower is fulfilling one's religion. So to depict one's religiousness, piousness or spirituality one follows this path.

But somewhere in our mind with a little logic and rational approach a thought prevails that mere propagation, preaching or following a flock is far-far distant from the real spirituality.

A real spiritual being can be distinguished from the following observations:-

A spiritual being's thought is totally devoid of any communal differences or segregations of sect, cast, status, gender, creed and color etc. Infact, all discriminations vanish and he realizes 'the truth' that the entire human creation shares the same father, therefore, he enjoys universal brotherhood.

A spiritual being is not dependent on any intermediates to get close to God. Rather the knowledge of the Universal Truth becomes his mentor, his Guru. This is the transformation which splutters his spirituality, his inborn divine holiness. A great understanding comes and stays in the mind of a spiritual being that this entire life cycle is a pilgrimage in itself. Therefore such being doesn't need any holy dips or visits to any places to attain spirituality.

A spiritual being is never scared and doesn't even attempt to frighten any one else. The fallacies of hell or judgment day doesn't bother him a bit. His life has no room for rituals, superstitions and blind faith. He is not only concerned to attain his own salvation; neither does the thought of rebirth or reincarnation. Infact, Humility-the practice of humble deeds becomes his journey of life and 'HIS SALVATION.'

A real spiritual being is totally exempted from the ailments of jealousy, envy and hatred. Infact, his love for the mankind is limitless being soft spoken and sweet to every one is his way of life this further magnifies his creativity for the betterment of the society. Humanity becomes his religion, working for the needy and downtrodden is 'worship' for him. Such a person unbiased shares all his achievements and accomplishments with his fellow beings and the sparkling effect of spirituality is visible from his BLISSFULL STATE he accepts the 'Will of God' very happily.

Thus one's deeds, actions, gestures and behavior with others are the touch stone of spirituality.
